Policy

- Economic Development: Four years on the planning commission has given me key insights on the issues we face as a city. I will focus on planning for the future as well as work on passing ordinances that will welcome business to Clearfield City
- Parks and Recreation: The PARAT tax has already made it possible to purchase new park equipment in its first phase. The second phase will allow us to bring new equipment to the pool at the aquatic center. I will continue to help make improvements to our parks and recreation a priority.
- Public Works: Infrastructure is always top of mind for myself. Projects need to be prioritized so we need to budget wisely to make the needed improvements across Clearfield City.
- Youth: Our future is important and we need to train the leaders of tomorrow. I have been researching youth councils across the country and will soon have a unique opportunity for our youth to participate on our Clearfield City Youth Advisory Commission.
- Public Safety: We have incredible Police and Fire protection in Clearfield City. I will do anything I can to support them.
